Prior to it, two preparatory Conferences were also held, both under the Chairmanship of Count Sir Eboo, during which the preliminary work for the Paris Conference was undertaken. The first preparatory Conference took place in Nairobi in February, 1974, and the second in Paris in March, 1975. This report is, therefore, to be read in the context of the report of the 1974 Nairobi Conference.

The list of delegates who attended the 1975 Paris Conference is given overleaf.

1. REVIEW OF FUNDAMENTAL CONCEPTS AND BELIEFS

1.1 Fundamental Concepts and Beliefs

The pre-Conference meeting in Paris reviewed the recommendations of the Nairobi Conference, which were that the following areas in Islamic and Ismaili religious thought and philosophy should receive special emphasis in all educational and research programmes:

(i) The concept of God
(ii) The concepts of Nabuwah and Imamah
(iii) The concept of Man
(iv) The concept of Religion

It was AGREED that the scope of enquiry under the above areas should also cover the exposition of concepts such as Tanzeel and Qiyamat.

The pre-Conference meeting also discussed a paper tabled by the Ismailia Association for Pakistan, entitled "Fundamental Beliefs of Ismailis".

On the subject of the key areas referred to above, Mowlana Hazar Imam directed that an area dealing with the relationship between Matter and Spirit be added to the four areas already identified. The Conference thereupon RESOLVED that the following should form the basis of the Jamat's approach towards religious education and research programmes:
(i) The concept of God:

The absolute transcendence of God to be emphasised, and the Ismaili belief in God to be expounded in association with the general stress on the transcendence of God in the Koran, as exemplified particularly in the Surat-u-Ikhlas.

(ii) The concepts of Nabuwal and Imamah:

These concepts to be explained and understood in the general perspective of God's communication to man. The Imam to be explained as the 'mazhar' of God, and the relationship between God and the Imam to be related to varying levels of inspiration and communication from God to man.

(iii) The concept of Man:

The spiritual side of man, which is the mainstay of Islamic and Ismaili conceptions of selfhood, to be emphasised and explained, and the influence of Western ideologies whereby the materialistic conception of man is likely to become increasingly predominant to be taken account of.

(iv) The concept of Religion:

This to be explained in line with the Islamic understanding of religion as a whole way of life. In teaching the history of Islam and Ismailism, the student to be introduced not only to the strictly "religious" aspect of the glory of Islam, but also to the total phenomenon which is characterised as the "Islamic civilization".

The relationship between Matter and Spirit:

The relationship between the material and spiritual aspects of human life to be investigated in terms of the historical evolution of this concept in Islam and Ismailism. This is of particular importance in light of the need to avoid the creation of a dichotomy between these two facets of human life. The essentially positive attitude of Islam to the material aspect of life, in balance with the spiritual one, to be highlighted.

The Conference further RESOLVED that, while the above five areas are of prime concern in the Jamat's approach towards religious education and research programmes, they are by no means exclusive and should, in effect, constitute the starting point for research in other areas as well.

Finally, on the subject of the paper entitled "Fundamental Beliefs of Ismailis", it was AGREED that there was no need for such a statement since the Constitutions already carry a statement of basic Ismaili beliefs.
1.2 Spiritual Aspects of Ismailism

After a review of the recommendations of the Nairobi Conference, and pursuant to Mawlana Hazar Imam’s guidance, the following was RESOLVED:

1.2.1 Efforts to be made to make accessible to a larger percentage of the Jamat, in a comprehensible form, literature and theological material relating to the spiritual aspects of Ismailism. This refers to basic texts of the Fatimide and other similar periods, as well as to the more recent interpretative works by scholars such as Dr. Ivanow, Dr. Corbin, etc.

1.2.2 In implementing the above, simultaneous efforts to be made at analysing and simplifying the relevant material, and at equipping members of the Jamat with instruments of learning and tools of comprehension to enable them to understand it.

1.2.3 The analysis and simplification of the material to be undertaken by the proposed Institute of Ismaili Studies. In the meanwhile, the Ismailia Associations to organise lectures on matters such as Symbolism, followed by group discussions, in order to introduce certain facets of the subject to members of the Jamat. Other appropriate methods for this purpose also to be developed.
1.2.4 The recommendation of the Nairobi Conference on the subject of explaining the inner meaning of religion through discussions in small groups to be deferred for the time being, in view of the lack of manpower of sufficient calibre to conduct such discussions.
2. RELIGIOUS RITES, RITUALS AND CEREMONIES

Following a review of the recommendations of the Nairobi Conference and pursuant to Mowlana Hazar Imam's guidance, it was RESOLVED, in principle, that in view of differing conditions in various areas of the Jamat's residence, it is not desirable to attempt a rigid uniformization of Rites, Rituals and Ceremonies.

Further to the above, the following was also RESOLVED:

2.1 The Rites, Rituals and Ceremonies practised by any given Jamat to take into account that Jamat's socio-cultural sentiments and traditions.

2.2 Periodic consultations between all Ismailia Associations for the purpose of reviewing Rites, Rituals and Ceremonies to take place.

2.3 Basic Rites, Rituals and Ceremonies agreed upon by all Associations to be practised in all relevant areas as far as possible.

2.4 The exercise of implementing any changes in the Rites, Rituals and Ceremonies agreed upon by all Associations to be carried out discreetly, and the fundamental perspective to be highlighted when explanations are to be given in respect of such changes. In this respect, the Ismailia Associations to agree in advance upon a common approach, and the Jamat's Mukhi/Kamadia and Waezeen to be briefed in advance about the proposed changes.

Furthermore, Mowlana Hazar Imam's guidance was sought on certain specific practices, pursuant to which following was RESOLVED:

2.5 Chanta:

'Abe Shafa' not to be used for the purpose of Chanta. Water for this purpose to be prepared through the recitation of the Du'a of "Nade Ali" by the Mukhi or Kamadia.

2.6 Mahadin Chanta:

It is the sole prerogative of Mowlana Hazar Imam to administer "Mahadin Chanta" to a living person. However, for practical reasons, the Mukhi or Kamadia may administer this Chanta to a deceased person.

2.7 Idd Namaz:

Until such time as the results of the research to be made by scholars become available, Idd Namaz as being presently recited in various areas to continue. The specific issues of incorporating Mowlana Hazar Imam's name and the Kalima in the Idd Namaz to be discretionary for the present, and the same to be recited on the basis of specific circumstances in any given area.

5.1.3 Urgent efforts be made to up-grade the level of education and proficiency of existing Waezeen.

5.1.4 These efforts be based on an assessment of the requirements for well-qualified and adequately-trained Waezeen, in different areas of Jamati settlement, to be determined on the basis of the specific lingua-franca of the various Jamats, such as English, French, Arabic, Persian, Urdu, Gujarati, etc.

5.1.5 A minimum acceptable level of education at which a person may be accepted for training be established.
5.1.6 In creating an "elite" class of Waezeen, due consideration and importance be given to the need to stimulate suitable personnel to undertake this vocation, and to encourage such personnel to continue in it. This be done through initiating acceptable conditions of service in terms of remuneration, incentives, allowances, status, etc.

5.1.7 For the purpose of implementing immediately a number of the above resolutions, the existing Waezeen training centres in Karachi and Bombay be strengthened (details in Section 5.2(i) below).

5.2 Training Programme for Waezeen/Religion Teachers

(i) Immediate Strengthening and Utilization of Training Centres in Karachi and Bombay:

6.1.3 Books, cassettes and any other material of a religious nature to be sold in Jamati premises only under the control of the Ismailia Association. The Jamat to be advised not to support such material being sold otherwise.

6.1.4 In the case of publications by individuals which are in contravention of relevant Articles of the Holy Constitution, the Ismailia Association to bring such publications to the attention of the National/Federal Council of the country concerned, so that suitable action may be taken.

6.1.6 The Ismailia Associations to take appropriate action to discourage individuals, Ismaili or non-Ismaili, from printing the photograph of Mowlana Hazar Imam on items such as festival cards, calendars, etc.

6.1.7 The Ismailia Associations to liaise with their respective National/Federal Councils in the matter of publications, and to refrain from publishing material which deals with matters of a social, economic or political nature, which could be misinterpreted. This also to apply to the publication of such religious material as could be misinterpreted either within or outside the Jamat.

The classification of Ginans into three categories, viz:

Category 'A' : Ginans with no Hindu element
Category 'B' : Ginans with peripheral Hindu element
Category 'C' : Ginans which are rich in Hindu element

prepared by the Ismailia Association for India was considered, whereafter, pursuant to Mowlana Hazar Imam's guidance, the following was RESOLVED:

6.3.1 Ginans in Category 'A' to be compiled for printing by the Ismailia Association for India, and draft texts thereof to be sent to all Ismailia Associations by 30th June, 1975. After agreement amongst the Associations as to the texts of the Ginans and the model for printing, the final material to be printed by each of the Ismailia Associations for India, Pakistan and Tanzania, and to be made available to the Jamats by 31st August, 1975.

7. ADMISSION INTO THE ISMAILI FAITH

After a review of the recommendations of the Nairobi Conference, and pursuant to further guidance from Mowlana Hazar Imam, it was RESOLVED that applications received from non-Ismailis wishing to embrace the Ismaili faith be considered in the light of the following general guide-lines:

7.1 In so far as is possible, it be established that the application is motivated by feelings of genuine commitment to the Ismaili faith rather than by factors such as merely marriage to an Ismaili spouse.

7.2 In considering each application with a view to determining the suitability or otherwise for the applicant's admission to the Ismaili faith, factors such as his general character and personal habits, his emotional background and his attitude to religion in general be considered.

7.3 The applicant's familiarity with, and commitment to, the principles of Islam and Ismailism be determined.

7.4 In dealing with applications, the primary concern be that the stability and equilibrium of the Jamat are safeguarded.

7.5 The response to all applications, whether in the affirmative or negative, be quick.

7.6 Each application be considered according to individual merits.
7.7 Taking account of the factors stated above, the response be sympathetic as far as possible.

7.8 A comprehensive course in Islam and Ismailism, to be undertaken by people entering the Ismaili faith, be prepared as part of the overall programme of religious education.

7.9 Once a person is admitted to the Ismaili faith, he be treated, in all respects, as an Ismaili, without any discrimination whatsoever.

7.10 Notwithstanding the above, the situation be avoided whereby fresh entrants to the Ismaili faith undertake commitments, or are given responsibilities, which they either do not understand or appreciate. In this context, a period of three years be allowed to elapse before such individuals are considered for entry into any Mandli.

7.11 In general, the attitude towards applicants and those who are accepted into the Ismaili faith, be one of tact, consideration and sympathy.

7.12 The relevant Councils be required to keep a record of Ismailis marrying non-Ismailis to ensure that, in the event of future difficulties, the interest of any offspring could be safeguarded.
